

St Michael and All Angels, Colehill

Celebrating the Coronation of King Charles III

‘Royal’ Art Competition

Entries will be displayed in the St Michael’s Church and Church Centre during the Coronation Cream Tea.

Rules

1. There is no entrance charge.
2. The subject matter should be an interpretation of ‘Royal’ as related to Royalty in the UK.
3. Art work should be no bigger than A4 size.
4. The work can be a painting, drawing, sketch, collagraph, print, woodcut, etching or collage. Photographs will not be accepted.
5. Please, no pictures in frames with glass.
6. The mediums used can include one or more of the following – paint, crayon, coloured pencils, felt tip pens, water colours, acrylic paint, oil paint, collage.
7. The background material can be paper, card, wood, plastic, canvas, etc.
8. Textile pieces will be accepted – fabric applique, piecing, embroidery, weaving, lace.
9. The name and age of the entrant should be on the back of the piece along with contact details. School entries should have school and class included in details.
10. Entries will be accepted on Wednesday, 26th April, at St Michaels Church Centre.
11. Entries will be returned as soon after the Cream Tea as possible or may be collected at the end of the afternoon, Sunday May 7th.

Age Groups

1. Children 5-8
2. Children 9-12
3. Children 13-18
4. Adults

Rosettes will be awarded in each class.

For further enquiries please contact hilary.gooding@sky.com